No. $\frac{3679}{7}$ OF 1902.

From

THE ACTING COMMISSIONER OF POLICE,
Bombay;

To

THE ACTING CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
Judicial Department,
Bombay.

Police Commissioner's Office,
Bombay, 10th April 1902.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit herewith the Annual Police Report for the Town and Island of Bombay for the year 1901.

2. In conformity with the instructions contained in Government Resolution, Judicial Department, No. 4075, dated the 14th July 1886, I forwarded the report to the Chief Presidency Magistrate, and beg to attach hereto, for the information of Government, a copy of letter No. 862, dated the 8th April 1902, from that officer.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
H. G. GELL,
Acting Commissioner of Police.

No. 862 OF 1902.

From

T. J. STRANGMAN, ESQUIRE,
Acting Chief Presidency Magistrate,
and Revenue Judge;

To

THE ACTING COMMISSIONER OF POLICE,
Bombay.

Chief Presidency Magistrate's Court,
Bombay, 8th April 1902.

SIR,

I have the honor to return herewith, with thanks, your Annual Report on the working of the Bombay City Police for the year 1901, forwarded to me with your letter dated 1st instant.

2. With reference to paragraphs 21—23 of the Report, I note with satisfaction that the number of theft cases has diminished by 210. This happy result I consider to be largely due to the introduction of whipping at the Esplanade Police Court in July last. I use the expression introduction advisedly, for I understand that no advantage of the provisions of the Whipping Act had been taken by the Magistrates before. The experience of the Third Presidency Magistrate and myself shows that although very large numbers of adults have been ordered to be whipped at the Esplanade Police Court during the last nine months, only three or four in all have re-appeared at that Court as offenders under sections of the Indian Penal Code made punishable with whipping. When visiting the jails, however, I have noticed that several of those who had been sentenced to whipping at the Esplanade Police Court were undergoing sentences of imprisonment. In these cases, the offenders had transferred the scene of their labours to the Police Divisions dealt with by the Mázgaon Police Court, where the punishment named is seldom, if ever, made use of.

3. With reference to paragraphs 30—34 of the Report, I have nothing further to add to what I have already stated in this office letter No. 2810 of 1901, dated 19th December 1901, to the Under Secretary to Government, Judicial Department.

4. I am glad to be able to endorse the statement contained in paragraph 100 that the good relations subsisting between the Magistrates and the Police had been maintained throughout the year.

I have the honor, &c.

(Signed) T. J. STRANGMAN,
Acting Chief Presidency Magistrate,
and Revenue Judge, Bombay.

H. G. GELL,
Acting Commissioner of Police.

No. $\frac{3669}{7}$ of 1902.

From

H. G. GELL, ESQUIRE,
Acting Commissioner of Police, Bombay.

To

S. W. EDGERLEY, ESQUIRE, C.I.E., I. C. S.,
Acting Chief Secretary to Government,
Judicial Department, Bombay.

Police Commissioner's Office,
Bombay, 10th April 1902.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit herewith the Annual Report on the working of the Bombay City Police for the year 1901, with the usual appendices, minus Statement D, and a statement regarding cases of infanticide required by Government Resolution, Judicial Department, No. 7138, dated the 3rd October 1900, no offences of the kind having occurred in Bombay during the year 1901. Similarly Statement G has also not been appended—vide Government Resolutions, Judicial Department, Nos. 463 and 1072, dated, respectively, 18th January and 11th February 1902.

2. Mr. Hartley Kennedy was in charge of the office of the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, from the beginning of the year up to the 31st December, when he proceeded on leave and I took over charge of the office. With the exception of a month spent on leave in October, the duties of Deputy Commissioner throughout the year were performed by me.

CRIME.

3. There were 23,469 cognizable offences during the year, of which 18,241 were reported to the Police and 5,228 to the Magistrates direct. There were also 102 pending cases from the preceding year, making a total of 23,571 cases for disposal. This shows a decrease of 11,828 cases as compared with the figures for 1900 and of 8,689 as compared with the average of the past three years. So far as Police cases are concerned, the decrease is entirely due to the fall of crime under the Police Acts, the reasons for which are given later on in the report.

4. The following table shows broadly the details of reported crime, including magisterial cases, for 1900 and 1901 under each class comparatively :—

Offences.	1900.	1901.

Pending cases.

5. There were 45 cases pending at the close of the year, of which 29 were Police and 16 Magistrates' cases. Last year they were 36 and 66, respectively.

POLICE COGNIZABLE CASES, ALL CLASES, INCLUDING UNDETECTED AND EXCLUDED CASES.

6. The number of cases reported to, and taken up by, the Police under the above head was 18,241 as against 30,013 in 1900, showing the very large decrease of 11,772 cases. Adding pending cases (columns 4 and 20 of Statement A, Part III), the total number of offences dealt with during the year was 18,294. Of this number 16,244 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 88·79 as compared with 92·30 for the last year, and with an average of 91·49 for the last three years.

(a) Penal Code.

7. There were 5,447 offences under this head as against 5,508 in the previous year, and with 36, the number of pending cases added, the number dealt with amounted to 5,483. Of this, 3,850 cases ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 70·22 as compared with 70·80 for last year, and with an average of 66·28 for the last three years.

(b) Class VI and Miscellaneous.

8. Under this head there were 12,793 offences as against 26,683 in the previous year. Taking 17 pending cases for the last year, the total number of cases dealt with was 12,810. Of these 12,393 cases resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 96·74 as compared with 97·14 for last year, the average percentage for the last three years being 96·47.

Excluded cases with details.

9. Under this head 495 cases appear on the return. Of this number, 98 cases were declared to be mistakes of fact, 19 to be non-cognizable, 137 to be false, (100 with and 28 without malice), 45 were compounded and 11 withdrawn, 30 were transferred, 129 were struck off, accused not having responded to their recognizance, and 26 were similarly dealt with for various other reasons.

Maliciously false cases.

10. The maliciously false cases numbered 109, as against 56 in the previous year, showing an increase of 53 and also an increase of 4 in those that were false but not malicious. Of the maliciously false cases 79 were decided by Magistrates to be vexatious complaints, and under Section 553, Criminal Procedure Code, compensation was awarded in them to the accused in sums ranging from Rs. 5 to 50.

Total real cases.

11. There were in all 17,799 real cases including pending (columns 4 and 20) cases from the previous year. Of this number 16,225 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 91·16. The total number of real cases as shown in the previous year's report was 29,995 with a percentage of conviction of 92·55.

(a) Penal Code.

12. The total number of real cases under the Indian Penal Code, including 36 from the previous year, was 5,139, of which 3,834 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 74·62 as against 71·85 in the previous year.

(b) Class VI and Miscellaneous.

13. The total number of real cases under this head was 12,660, including 17 pending cases from the previous year. Of this number, 12,391 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 97·87 as against 97·14 in the year 1900.

REAL AND FALSE CASES AND THEIR PROPORTION TO CASES REPORTED, TO POPULATION, AND TO THE POLICE.

14. The total number of real and false cases of all descriptions, including pending cases from the previous year, was 17,799 and 495, respectively, as against 29,955 and 80 in the previous year. The proportion of such cases to the total number reported was as one to 35·95. The proportion of true crime to population was as one to 43·60 as against one to 27·43 in the previous year, and that of crime to Police was as 7·98 to one as compared with 13·46 to one in the year before.

RESULT OF TRIAL BY CLASSES OF CASES.

15. Class I.—This class shows an increase of 10 cases over the previous year, which come under the heads of "Offences relating to coin," to "Stamps," to "Government Promissory Notes" and to "Rioting or unlawful assembly." Out of 54 cases reported, 44 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 81·48 as against 84·44 in the previous year.

16. Class II.—This class shows an increase of 28 cases as compared with the previous year, which is chiefly noticeable under murders and attempts at murder, rape by a person other than the husband, attempt at and abetment of suicide, grievous hurt and hurt by dangerous weapons.

17. Out of a total of 480 cases, including 8 cases of the previous year, 340 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 70·98 as against 67·85 in the year 1900.

18. In cases of kidnapping and selling of minors for the purpose of prostitution, a slight drop in the number of cases is noticeable. As in the year before, much activity was shown by the Police in enquiring into and detecting this class of crime, and I fully endorse what Mr. Kennedy then said regarding the difficulty in getting evidence and bringing the offenders to justice.

19. Class III.—In this class also there was an increase of 39 cases as compared with the previous year. Of the 538 cases, including 9 of 1900, 258 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 47·95 as against 64·84 in the year previous. The increase is chiefly noticeable under Robbery, house-trespass and house-breaking.

20. Class IV.—This class shows an increase of 23 cases as compared with the previous year. Out of 51 cases reported 31 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 74·50 as compared with 65·51 of the year before.

21. Class V.—In this class there were 4,341 cases as against 4,502 in 1900, showing a decrease of 161 offences. The decrease falls under the following heads of crime :—

Lurking house-trespass or house-breaking	1
Theft of cattle	4
Theft, ordinary	210
Criminal breach of trust by public servant	9
Breaking closed receptacle	1

Against the above there is an increase in the following :—

Criminal breach of trust	18
Receiving stolen property	24
Cheating	17
Criminal or house-trespass	5

22. Including 19 cases from the previous year, 4,360 cases were dealt with during the year under report. Of this number, 3,170 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 72·70 as against 73·61 in 1900.

23. This drop in theft cases of 214, and the improvement in percentage of conviction under "Receiving stolen property" and "Criminal or House-trespass" (Serial number 47) is satisfactory.

24. Class VI.—In this class there were 465 cases as against 487 in the year previous, showing a decrease of 22 cases. The decrease is observable under Vagrancy and bad character and Public and local nuisances. Against these there is an increase under the Gambling and Opium Acts. Out of 467 cases, including those pending from 1900, 428 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 91·64 as against 93·01 in the preceding year.

25. Out of 310 cases of gambling including those pending from 1900, 294 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 94·83 as against 96·14 in 1900.

26. Under the head of Vagrancy and bad character (Serial number 50) are included 23 cases of bad character against 29 in 1900, of which 20 resulted in conviction.

27. The number of European vagrants dealt with during the year was 66 as compared with 79 in the previous year. Of this number 62 were convicted.

Miscellaneous Offences.

28. Under the head of Miscellaneous offences, there were 12,328 offences as against 24,018 in 1900, showing the very large decrease of 11,690. The decrease under each head is given below :—

Public Conveyance Act	734
Police Acts	10,493
Drunkenness	580
Indian Explosives Act	1
Assaulting a Policeman	6
Abkári Act	17
Indian Ports Act	29
Bombay Port Trust Act	1

Against the above, there was an increase under the following heads :—

Possession of stolen property	48
Prevention of Cruelty to Animals	59
Merchant Seaman's Amendment Act	22
Post Office Act	3
Prisons Act	3
Jails Act	1
Native Passengers' Ships' Act...	4
Municipal Act	31

29. Of the 12,328 offences reported during the year plus 15 that were pending from 1900, 11,965 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 97·06. The percentage for the previous year stood at 97·27.

30. The large decrease in the total number of offences under this class is mainly observable under the Police and Public Conveyance Acts, and in cases of drunkenness, but more especially under the Police Acts. This is entirely due to the fact that Magistrates regard most cases of obstructing the thoroughfare, by squatting on roads and foot-paths and selling vegetables, &c., (Section 19 of Act XLVIII of 1860, clauses 11 and 12) with disfavour.

31. Formerly a large number of such cases used to be sent up by the Police to the Courts, but the results were unsatisfactory, as the punishments inflicted were merely nominal in the majority of cases, and the nuisance in the streets did not thereby diminish.

32. Having this in view, and having heard an expression of opinion from one of the Magistrates to the effect that outside evidence was necessary to prove obstruction, and that by following the present procedure the Police were only oppressing the people, the Commissioner of Police issued a departmental circular, with the result that the squatters were less interfered with than before.

33. In consequence of repeated references in the matter made by the Municipal authorities, however, and noting the large decrease which had taken place in such cases, the question was again gone into, and another circular was issued, in which it was pointed out to the Police, that it was not intended that such cases should be entirely ignored, and that they must continue to prosecute, but only when the obstruction caused was excessive, and after the squatters had been once warned. Since that date more cases have been taken up, but, even with the checks mentioned above, Magistrates still refuse to punish adequately, and in some instances refuse to punish at all.

34. It is difficult to produce other than Police evidence of obstruction, because witnesses will not come forward, if they can possibly avoid doing so. If, therefore, Magistrates will not punish with deterrent effect, merely because they are not prepared to accept Police evidence by itself, cases of the kind must fall off in number, and become few and far between. I need not dwell longer on the subject as it has already been brought by the Commissioner of Police to the notice of Government in this office letter No. $\frac{1118?}{6}$, dated the 31st October 1901.

35. The fall of offences under the Public Conveyance Act appears to be due to the severity of the punishments inflicted by the Magistrates, and the subsequent action by the Commissioner of Police in suspending the licenses during the year 1900. These punishments had a deterrent effect on the owners and drivers.

36. There were 204 cases under "Possession of stolen property" (Section 35 of Act XIII of 1856) as against 156 in 1900, showing an increase of 48 cases. Of the 206 cases, including 2 pending from the previous year, 155 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 75·24 as against 62·82 in 1900.

37. These are street cases in which persons are arrested on suspicion, mostly in the small hours of the morning, for having in their possession property reasonably suspected to be stolen. Much discrimination has to be shown in dealing with such cases, and the improvement in the percentage of conviction, of about 13 points, speaks highly for the vigilance and discretion of the Police concerned.

Serious Crime—generally.

38. During the year under report there were 21 cases of murder and attempts at murder as compared with eight in the previous year. Of the 21 cases—

6 were due to jealousy.
4 do. to infidelity.
1 was due to avariciousness.
3 were due to religious fanaticism.
1 was due to insanity, and in
6 motives were not apparent.

39. Of the above, 12 resulted in conviction, 2 were transferred, in one case the accused committed suicide, in one the accused was proclaimed a lunatic, four remained undetected and one was pending trial at the close of the year. In connection with these cases, 19 persons were arrested, 15 of whom were convicted, 2 were transferred, one was proclaimed a lunatic, the case being postponed sine die, and one accused was pending his trial at the end of the year.

40. There were also two cases of culpable homicide against an equal number in 1900. Of the two persons concerned in them one was convicted and the other transferred to Sátára.

Suicides.

41. I subjoin the usual statement of suicide cases compiled by the Coroner:—

Offences.	Europeans.		Eurasians.		Native Christians.		Mahomedans.		Parsis.		Hindus.		Grand Total.
	Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.
Suicides	3	1	...	...	...	...	12	1	13	5	82	25	80	30

42. During the year under report, 649 inquests were held by the Coroner, which shows a decrease of 26 cases as compared with the year 1900. Homicides show a rise of 4. Suicide and accidental deaths went down by 15, and deaths from natural causes by 19, while those from unknown causes show an increase of 20.

43. By Government orders contained in their letter, Judicial Department, No. 7376, dated the 18th November 1901, the Police Commissioner was directed to deal with simple cases of accidental death. The number so dealt with was 29, and will explain the fall in the number of Coroner's inquests.

Sessions Cases and Persons.

44. During the year under report, the Sessions Court dealt with 51 cases as compared with 40 in the year 1900, showing an increase of 11 cases. Of these, 37 ended in conviction, 12 in acquittal, one case was submitted to Government for orders, and one was pending. Of the 60 persons concerned in them, 41 were convicted, 17 acquitted, one remanded pending Government orders, and one was awaiting his trial at the close of the year.

Undetected Cases.

45. Out of a total of 5,139 real cases for disposal under the Indian Penal Code, 949 were classed as undetected (column 17 of Statement A, Part III), the percentage being 18·46 as compared with 17·55 in the preceding year.

General results of working.

46. It will be seen from the foregoing paragraphs that during the year under report, crime has considerably gone down, both under the Indian Penal Code and under the Police and Local Act cases. While Classes I to IV show an increase of crime, Classes V, VI and miscellaneous offences show a decrease. On the other hand, while Classes II, III and IV show better results in the percentage of convictions, Classes V, VI and miscellaneous offences show a slight falling off, when compared with the figures for the preceding year. On the whole, the results of the working of the Police will, I trust, be considered satisfactory. The reasons for the increase and decrease of crime have been given under the classes themselves.

Action of the Police in dealing with offences under A'bkári, Salt, Customs and Opium Laws.

47. Under the A'bkári Act the returns show 74 cases as against 91 in the year 1900. Of the 75 cases, including one pending from last year, 71 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 94·66 as against 95·60 in the previous year.

48. There were 10 cases under the Opium Act as against 3 in 1900 and but one case under the Tobacco Act, all of which resulted in conviction.

Persons in Police cases.—Arrested by Police suo motu and disposed of.

49. During the year under report 21,648 persons were concerned in Police cases, including 84 pending (columns 4 and 30 of Statement A, Part IV), from the previous year. Of these—

20,135 wewe convicted.
877 were acquitted.
594 were otherwise disposed of.
9 died.
33 were pending at the close of the year.

50. Out of the 21,648 persons arrested during the year, 20,135 were convicted, showing a percentage of 93·01 as compared with 94·73 in the year 1900, and of 21,345 persons tried, 20,135 were convicted, giving a percentage of 94·33, the percentage of those acquitted to tried being 4·10 as against 3·08 in 1900.

Released without Trial—All classes.

51. There were 10 such cases in which 9 persons were released by the Commissioner of Police in his capacity as Presidency Magistrate.

Disposed of by Trial.—All classes.

(a) Indian Penal Code.

52. Under the Indian Penal Code, 5,378 persons were tried and 4,533 convicted, showing a percentage of 84·28 as compared with 84·28 in the previous year; the percentage of those acquitted to tried being 9·72 as against 10·23 in 1900.

(b) Class VI and Miscellaneous.

53. Under Class VI and miscellaneous offences, 15,966 persons were tried, of whom 15,601 were convicted, showing a percentage of 97·71 as compared with 96·91 in the previous year; the percentage of those acquitted to those tried being 2·21 as against 1·75 in 1900.

DIRECT CASES.

54. There were 5,294 cases for disposal before the Magistrates, including 66 pending cases from the previous year, of which 4,675 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 88·30 as compared with 89·70 in 1900. These cases were disposed of as follows:—

Ended in conviction	4,675
,, in acquittal or discharge	443
Struck out for want of appearance of complainants and accused ...	155
Pending at the close of the year	16
Dismissed after investigation under Section 203, Criminal Procedure Code	1
Referred to the Collector of Bombay	1
Dealt with under a non-cognizable section	3
	5,294

Persons in direct cases.

55. In connection with direct cases, process was issued against 5,451 persons, of whom 5,335 appeared before the Courts, including 75 pending from the previous year, and 4,762 were convicted, showing a percentage of 89·25 as compared with 90·81 for the year 1900. The remaining 573 persons were disposed of as follows:—

Acquitted or discharged	546
Pending at the close of the year	21
Struck out for want of appearance	1
Referred to the Collector of Bombay	1
Dealt with under a non-cognizable section	4
	573.

NON-COGNIZABLE CRIME.

Cases.

56. The total number of cases for disposal during the year under report was 8,365, including 59 cases from the previous year. Out of this number 2,040 were under the Indian Penal Code and the remaining 6,325 were under Class VI and miscellaneous offences. They were disposed of as follows:—

2,330 ended in conviction.
3,029 ended in acquittal.
2,968 dismissed without trial.
37 were pending at the close of the year.
1 struck out for want of appearance.

8,365

Persons.

57. In connection with the above cases 10,777 persons appeared before the Courts, including 77 from the previous year. These persons were disposed of as follows:—

2,588 were convicted.
4,253 were acquitted or discharged.
3,883 were discharged without trial.
52 were pending trial at the close of the year, and case against
1 was struck out for want of appearance.

10,777

Castes of offenders.

58. The following statement shows the different castes to which the 37,601 offenders dealt with in both cognizable and non-cognizable cases belonged :—

	Caste.														Grand Total.
	European.		Portuguese and Native Christians.		Hindus.		Mahomedans.		Parsis.		Others.		Total.

PROPERTY—STOLEN AND RECOVERD.

59. The total value of property alleged to have been stolen during the year amounted to Rs. 3,61,451 ; out of which 1,51,961 was recovered, giving a percentage of 42·04 as against 46·35 in the preceding year.

60. The number of cases in which property was stolen was 4,339, and that in which it was recovered was 3,344, giving a percentage of 76·83 as compared with 80·60 in 1900.

61. From a comparison of the figures for 1900, it will be noted that the Police have done better both as regards detection and recoveries in cases of receiving stolen property and robberies, but in those of house-breaking, theft and criminal breach of trust, they have not been so successful.

62. The total percentage of recoveries for the year does not compare favorably with that for the previous year. This should not, however, be taken as a criterion of the working of the Police, as the fall is due to bad results in a few cases only. If these cases were excluded, the percentage of recoveries would be normal.

ARMS, EXPLOSIVES AND PETROLEUM ACTS.

63. The following statement shows the number of licenses and permits issued under these Acts by the Commissioner of Police during the year 1901 :—

Serial No.	——	1900.	1901.	Increase.	Decrease.
1	Permits to exempted persons	2,270	2,225	...	45
2	Permits to public servants	105	73	...	32

12	Licenses under Explosives Act	202	175	...	27
	Total ...	6,200	6,093	516	623

64. From the foregoing statement it will be seen that the number of licenses held in Bombay for the possession of arms was 527 as against 506 in the previous year, showing an increase of 21 licenses.

65. The following table shows to what sections of the community the license-holders belong :—

Nationality.	Number of Licenses.	Fire-arms.				Other Arms.
		Rifles.	Fowling pieces.	Revolvers.	Pistols.	Air Guns.	Swords.	Sword sticks.	Daggers.	Pattas.

Explosives Act.

66. The following is a summary of licenses issued under the Indian Explosives Act during the year 1901 :—

Manufacture, possession and sale	15
Possession and sale	148
Possession...	9
Sale	3

Pilgrims.

67. Owing to the continuance of plague, the restrictions imposed in past years upon the embarkation of pilgrims at Bombay for the Hedjaz were maintained throughout the year under report. (vide Government Resolution, General Department, No. 5928, dated the 15th November 1901).

68. Notwithstanding this restriction, a number of pilgrims came to Bombay and had to be returned to their homes.

69. During the year, 1,426 pilgrims returned from the Hedjaz viâ Bombay and were sent to their homes in different parts of India under the usual Police arrangements.

Mendicants.

70. During the year, 5,782 subjects of Native States of Gujarát and Káthiáwár and 3,654 mendicants from British territories were deported from Bombay under the usual Police arrangements.

Deportation of Foreigners.

71. Under the provisions of Act III of 1864 orders of deportation were issued by Government to 37 foreigners connected with the brothels in Bombay. Twenty-four of these were served and complied with; one was served but not enforced as the foreigner was in hospital, while the remaining orders could not be served as the foreigners had left before their receipt in this office.

72. Under the same provisions orders for the deportation of 25 Arabs and one African were issued on the representation of the Resident in Hyderabad (Deccan). Of the persons named in these orders, 16 were sent to Bombay including the African and deported; while the rest were permitted to remain in Hyderabad by the Resident.

73. Similarly six Khojas were deported to Káthiáwár, one to Cutch and one to Muscat. Warrants were issued against three of them for returning to British India, two of which were executed, while the Khoja named in the third could not be found.

Fires.

74. During the year under report, 66 fires occurred in the City of Bombay, causing a loss of property estimated at Rs. 11,96,549. The figures for 1900 were—Fires 82, and Rs. 1,74,722 estimated loss of property.

Street Accidents.

75. During the year, 702 persons were injured and 47 were killed by being run over—10 by tram cars and 37 by other conveyances, showing a decrease of 4 in the number of those killed and an increase of 102 in those injured as compared with the figures for the year 1900.

Conveyances.

76. The number of conveyances, public and private, during the year 1901 was as under :—

Public conveyances...	7,347
Private do.	6,675
Total ...	14,022

This shows a decrease of 63 in public and an increase of 679 in private conveyances. Under the latter head are included 1,825 bicycles and 11 tricycles.

The public conveyances consist of—

856 Victorias.
201 Reklas.
6,290 Labour carts.

Habitual Crimes and Offenders.

77. The working of the Criminal Identification Department has been carried on with satisfactory results with the information on record.

78. During the year, 1,975 references of identification were made, of which 1,896 were from Bombay, 23 from the Presidency and 53 from other Presidencies. Of this number, 425, 7 and 2, respectively, were traced in Bombay, giving a total number of 434 successful cases against 417 of last year. The number of slips despatched to the Bombay Presidency Bureau was 2,061 and 261 to other Presidencies, against 1,925 and 147, respectively, in the previous year, thus showing an increase of 250 slips forwarded.

79. There was a decrease in the death-rate of criminals convicted under Chapters XII and XVII, as 28 died during the year against 37 in the previous year.

Bad Characters.

80. There were 23 cases under Chapter VIII with an equal number of persons concerned in them, of whom 7 furnished the requisite security for good behaviour, 2 were acquitted, and the remaining 14 were sent to jail in default for terms varying from 6 months to a year.

Criminal Classes and Influx of Suspicious Foreigners.

81. Bombay was as usual visited by criminal classes and foreigners from all parts of India, some coming with the intention of honestly earning their livelihood, others to commit crime. During the year nothing occurred in Bombay which could be specially attributed to the influx of any particular class of suspicious foreigners.

Police Establishment.

82. The strength and distribution of the Police Force was the same as that for the year 1900. The 30 extra policemen temporarily engaged for escorting treasure during 1900 were discontinued at the commencement of the year under report.

Punishments.

83. Nine hundred and twenty-seven officers and men were punished during the year 1901 as under :—

Departmentally	...	...	...	882
Judicially	...	...	...	19
Dismissed	...	...	...	26
				927

The figures for 1900 were :—

Departmentally	...	...	...	858
Judicially	...	...	...	11
Dismissed	...	...	...	28
				897

The average number of dismissals for the last three years is 28.

Rewards.

84. Altogether 220 officers and men were rewarded during the year under report as compared with 168 during the preceding year. Of this number, 128 received promotion as compared with 92 in 1900. The remainder were rewarded as follows :—

55 by good conduct stripes, and 37 by money rewards.

85. In addition to the above, 193 men were rewarded by the issue of good service tickets.

86. Two Police Constables named Babu Ladu (No. 1233 F.) and Keshow Bhikaji (No. 784 G.) were recommended to the Royal Humane Society of London for having saved the lives of four natives from drowning at the risk of their own.

Health.

87. The number of admissions into Hospital was 2,012 as compared with 2,023 in 1900. The daily average on the sick list in the native constabulary was 53·22 as against 60·82 in the previous year ; the daily average on the sick list amongst the European Police was 1·06 as compared with 2·18 in 1900.

88. These results are perhaps due more to the stricter surveillance imposed by the Police Surgeon than to any improvement in the health of the force.

Casualties.

89. The total number of casualties was 237 as compared with 228 in the preceding year. The different heads under which they were distributed are as under :—

Deaths (including Inspector Gannon and Constables Power and Pease)	88
Retirement on pension or gratuity (including Superintendent Hack) ...	26
Resignations	70
Discharges	20
Dismissals	26
Remanded to Regiments	5
Transferred	2
Total ...	237

The quinquennial average number of casualties is 227.

90. Out of the 88 deaths which took place during 1900, 42 were due to plague as compared with 16 in 1900 and 28 in 1899.

Education.

91. One hundred and eighty-six officers (European and Native) and 431 men were able to read and write. The figures for 1900 were :—

Officers	...	...	... 175
Men	...	...	... 424

Recruiting.

92. The number of recruits taken on in the force was 208 as compared with 223 in the preceding year.

Resignations.

93. The number of persons who resigned during the year 1901 was 70 as compared with 50 in the preceding year. The resignations were due chiefly to domestic troubles and ill-health.

Drill and Ball Practice.

94. These were kept up on the same lines as reported last year.

Police Buildings.

95. There have been no changes to report this year in the number of Police buildings. Those in Police charge were repaired during the year at a cost of Rs. 802-1-0 against Rs. 436-4-0 in 1900.

96. The want of permanent quarters for the Police is still felt. In consequence of recommendations from the Commissioner of Police, suggesting certain sites, Government have made representations to the City Improvement Trust from time to time under Section 38 of the City Improvement Act to providing lines and quarters for the Police in different parts of the City, and it is hoped that the Trust will see their way to carrying out these representations in the near future.

Inspection.

Condition of Arms, Accoutrements and Ammunition.

97. These were regularly inspected and kept in proper order.

Inspection of Arms and Ammunition Shops.

98. The number of license-holders under Rule 11 of the rules framed under the Indian Arms Act was 37 as against 38 in the year previous, showing a decrease of one. His license was not renewed as he failed to make any use of it.

99. The stock and sale registers of these dealers in Arms and Ammunition were systematically inspected once a month at least and checked with the stock on their premises by the Arms and Ammunition Inspector and found to be correct.

General Efficiency and Remarks.

100. Judging by the results of the year's working, the Police have succeeded in maintaining their standard of efficiency. The great fall in the number of cognizable cases was due, as already stated in a former paragraph, to the action of the Magistrates, and it would be as well to bear that in mind in viewing the results of Police work. Punishments in the force very slightly increased during the year; on the other hand, a larger number of officers and men were rewarded. The good relations existing between the Magistracy and the Police continued during the year.

101. Superintendents Crummy, Sardár Mir Abdul Ali Khán Bahádur, McDermott, Ingram, Grennan and Nolan, and Inspectors Barnet, Sloane, Hamilton, Walton and Murray worked well and showed keen interest in their work.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

H. G. GELL,

Acting Commissioner of Police.
